

Some Final Questions – US Policy & Int'l Law

(Spring 2022)

- Sovereign Immunity – US corporations suing Russia in US courts (for possible nationalization of assets)?
- Responsibility of Russia for War of Aggression [UN Article 2(4) and 51]?
- War Crimes. Where leaders to be tried for above (Int'l Criminal Court, Special Tribunals)?
- Development of war of law and human rights under international law?
- Plaintiffs sue Russia for terrorism and torture in US courts (Alien Tort Statute and under other terrorism / torture laws)?
- President and Congress ability to freeze and liquidate Russian assets (inherent authority of the President and under statutory law)?
- Use of economic sanctions and extraterritoriality under US and international law (reach of sanctions outside of US)?
- Application of Constitution to individuals abroad (Guantanamo)?
- US join Law of Sea Convention? TPP2?
- Limit President's war powers [Constitution Article 1, Section 8, Clause 11 and Article 2, Section 2, Clause (1)]?
- Limiting President's trade powers that were delegated by Congress (Article 1, Section 8, Clause 3)?
- Limiting presidential authority as to use of military force (War Powers Resolution, AUMF)?
- Review by federal courts of president's foreign policy actions?
- Biden's Challenges -- Strengthening alliances and multilateral cooperation --- WTO, Climate, Environment, OECD Tax, Indo-Pacific Economic Cooperation?

